Chapter 2 by Lucas Wang

I could not believe how fast death set in. It was like the cold fingers of death were grabbing me, pulling me to the underworld or wherever I was about to go. I wanted to stay in. I wanted to stay alive. I couldn't let death take me. I had so much to live for. I tried to grab on to something, a handhold or something like that. But I knew I was no use. There is no stopping what was about to happen to me. I couldn't escape my destiny.
